

LINCOLN GLEN CHURCH

Community Group Questions for 4/18

Read Philippians 2:16-30. What stands out to you?

What does it mean to live a life where we do not labor in vain?

As Christians, who live with an eternal perspective, what kind of things can we invest into now that will last for eternity?

Paul uses the analogy of running the race, as a way of talking about a life lived for Jesus. How do we as Christians run the race well?

Read Philippians 2:21 again. What stands out to you?

We live a very individualistic society. How can we as followers of Jesus break from that and live lives more concerned about others than ourselves?

In the midst of this pandemic most of us have been concerned with our own comfort level. As Christians how can we navigate this pandemic being more concerned about others than our own interests?

Let's spend some time praying together.