Read Philippians 3:1. What stands out to you?

Why do you think Paul goes out of his way to remind the Philippians to rejoice over and over?

What does it mean to rejoice?

Read James 1:1-4. What stands out to you?

How can we consider it pure joy when we face trials?

It can be easier to look back at difficult times and see how God was at work but we don't always have that perspective during difficult times. How can we keep perspective even in the middle of our suffering?

What are the results of the trials we face?

Who could you be able to encourage this week that might be going through a difficult time?

Let's spend some time praying together.
