Community Group Questions for 5/30

Read Philippians 3:20-21. What stands out to you?

What does it mean that our citizenship is in heaven?

When a citizen from another country travels to a new country they usually find something strange, confusing or contradictory to their culture. As citizens of heaven what things should we find stranger, confusing or contradictory to our heavenly culture as we live here in the United States?

Do you think people see you as someone who stands out as different because you are a Christian?

Why does the passage say we eagerly await Jesus when He has already come?

What implications are there for our lives that we have a Savior who is filled with power and all things are subject to Him (v. 21)?

Let's spend some time praying together.
