Read Philippians 3:12-15. What stands out to you?

What does it mean to press on to take hold of that which Jesus took hold of me?

How can we forget the past? Especially when our past seems to often haunt us?

Does doubt ever creep in when you think about being forgiven from your past sins? What helps you rest assured in the fact that you are forgiven?

Jesus has forgiven us but does anyone need to go seek forgiveness from someone else for some ways we may have sinned against someone else?

Paul talks about looking ahead instead of focusing on the past. What is ahead for us to look forward to as Christians?

Let's spend some time praying together.
